He won the Prix Relay du Roman d'Évasion, a prize that rewards a novel in which readers can "scap of everyday life", for his novel Senderos de la Gloria, and the Prix Polar International Prize for the best international thriller of the year, for his novel A Prisoner of Birth. The Clifton Chronicles, a series of seven novels published between 2011 and 2017, overcame the bestseller lists around the world. Famous for his discipline as a writer who works in up to fourteen drafts of each book, Jeffrey also brings a lot of internal knowledge to his books. Whether it's your own career in politics, your passionate interest in art, or the wealth of fascinating background details - inspired by the extraordinary network of friends you've built for a lifetime at the heart of the British establishment - your novels provide a fascinating look in a range of closed worlds. Jeffrey is also an amateur auctioneer, carrying out up to 20 charity auctions a year. She's been married to Dame Mary Archer, president of the Science Museum Group for 55 years, and they have two children, two grandchildren and three grandchildren. Divide your time between London, Cambridge and Mallorca, where you write the first draft of each new novel. The fifth book in his new novels by William Warwick - the first of which, Nada Ventured, was published in 2019 - is NEXT IN LINE that will be released in September 2022. Just as he's about to put his twenty-eight-year career at the CIA behind him, he comes up against the most dangerous enemy he's ever faced: His own boss, Helen Dexter. As Director of the CIA, Dexter has always been the one to hold the strings. But when her status is threatened by a greater power, her only hope for survival is to destroy Fitzgerald. Meanwhile, the country braces itself as tensions with a new Russian leader reach the boiling pointÀÀÀand it's up to Fitzgerald to pull off his most daring mission yet: To save the world. Even if that means risking everything—including his own life?in the process. It has been disappointing to read two books back-to-back by one of my all-time favourite authors, Jeffrey Archer, that have not come even half-way close to his remarkable storytelling skills.
